Paramount Special Price List #3

SPECIAL SEPTEMBER-OCTOBER-NOVEMBER 1966 PRICE LIST. A catalogue of selected rare coins and other numismatic items offered for sale by Paramount International Coin Corporation; 5055 North Main Street; Dayton, Ohio 45415. Telephone 513 278-9611. Office hours: Monday through Friday 9 a.m. to 12 noon; 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Visitors are always welcome during business hours. Advance appointments are recommended so that we can have a selection of interesting coins on hand for you to view.

Thanks to our readers for the many nice comments and coin orders in response to our last Special Price List. We hope that you'll find this issue to be even better and more interesting! It includes a wide array of rare coins...priced from a dollar or two to thousands of dollars.

Have you ever considered the many different ways there are to collect? We once contemplated the formation of a Sentimental Collection - a collection comprised solely of coins with interesting stories. The 1883 Liberty nickel without CENTS (with the story of the "racketeer" deceptions)...the 1909 VDB cent (with its controversial initials which were subsequently removed in response to public opinion) ...the 1817 large cent which erroneously has 15 stars instead of 13...the 1938-D over S nickel with its two different mintmarks...These are just a few of the many coins which could be included in such a collection. ...And, such a collection could be tailored to fit practically any budget.

In recent years collecting by types has become very popular. The formation of a type set of coins from 1793 to date is a fascinating challenge. If you are less ambitious a type set of 20th century U.S. coins might be a good first step. Don't overlook the field of world coins. Did you know that a type set of English coins from Queen Victoria to date may be assembled for only a few hundred dollars...or a collection of the same in choice Uncirculated or Proof grade for only a few thousand dollars? The same opportunities exist with coins of Australia, South America and other areas. Ten years from now today's purchase opportunities and today's prices will be but fond memories...like looking through a ten-year-old copy of the Guide Book.

Specialized collecting has always been at the forefront of collecting. Chances are that you began collecting by filling a specialized album listing all of the dates and mints of Lincoln cents...or Jefferson nickels. Specialized collecting offers the opportunity for study and research. The specialist learns many interesting things. For instance he learns that the hardest-to-find coins are not always the highest priced...and therein lies the thrill of the hunt. As an example, any specialist in Liberty seated coins knows that there are many Uncirculated issues of the 1840's which catalogue for $100, $200 or less but which have not appeared in any major coin sale of the past decade! The collector interested in tokens may spend months or years looking for many elusive pieces...though they be priced at only a dollar or two when found.

There are many other ways of collecting. Assembling a set of Carson City silver dollars or double eagles is popular with many of our customers. Harry Boosel, well-known Chicago numismatist, specializes in coins bearing the date 1873. Another client of ours collects Civil War tokens from New York state. The collecting of U.S. and world coin overdates is another collector's specialty. The field of topical collecting, so popular in the stamp field, is growing in popularity in numismatics. Coins offer many interesting topics - birds, ships, etc. We once purchased the collection of an architect, consisting only of coins picturing cathedrals.

The 20-page special section which appeared as part of the July 20th issue of Coin World was a numismatic first - the largest advertisement ever to appear in a numismatic publication! Even now we are still receiving occasional orders from it. In between these Special Price Lists check the Paramount ads in Numismatic News, Numismatic Scrapbook Magazine, The Numismatist, Coin World and other publications for good value in United States and world coins.

This issue of our Special Price List is the largest we have had to date. This list incorporates several outstanding collections recently purchased, new acquisitions from our European buyer (Mr. Paul Wittlin), purchases made at the recent American Numismatic Association convention in Chicago and many other items. Counting duplicate specimens in our stock, well over $1,000,000.00 worth of coins are represented in this catalogue!

When you order do so with the assurance that your complete satisfaction is guaranteed...and that every item is ABSOLUTELY GUARANTEED GENUINE. We are not satisfied until you are. We believe that you will like the Paramount way of doing business.

   A. The only specimens known today appear to be Proofs or impaired Proofs from the original Proof mintage of 880 pieces.
   B. The 12,000 regular strikes are unknown today because they were delivered in 1898 to M. Vattemare of France in exchange for bullion.
   C. None were issued, making it the only gap in continuous silver dollar coinage by the Philadelphia Mint 1878-1904.
   D. The known specimens are those originally sold privately by certain Mint officials.

9. One reason given for issuing $3 gold pieces was that:

A. 3¢ stamps could conveniently be purchased in groups of 100 stamps by presenting one of these coins at the post office.
B. This denomination would prove to be convenient for trade in the Orient.
C. Klaus Spreckels, a San Francisco businessman, had them struck for use in the Hawaiian Islands.
D. Coin collectors would find the $3 denomination interesting.

A. All were struck on contract at the Heaton Mint in Birmingham, England.

ODDS AND ENDS OF NUMISMATIC INFORMATION

DID YOU KNOW THAT:

Washington quarters were originally intended as commemoratives when they were issued in 1932..... Buying trips planned by Paramount representatives during the next few months include visits to England, France, Switzerland, Holland, Belgium, Germany, Hong Kong and other far-flung places..... Restrikes of 1836 Gobrecht dollars may be identified by their inverted reverses.....The public enthusiasm for the new Lincoln cents upon their release in 1909 was akin to the enthusiasm shown over a half century later when Kennedy half dollars were first issued (dated 1964).....

James F. Kelly, one of our directors, once handled all five of the five known 1913 Liberty nickels .....1900 Lafayette commemorative silver dollars were actually struck in December, 1899.....The Duke of Windsor purchased an Edward VIII English brass threepence from a rare coin dealer so he could own a coin bearing his own portrait.....Gold dollars of the 1880's commonly occur with proof-like surfaces closely resembling actual Proofs - and are sometimes wrongly sold as Proofs.....Only 24 1894-S dimes were coined; the last one we sold (in our Century Sale auction)fetched over $12,000. .....The existence of the 1861-S Paquet double eagle was unknown to numismatists until the late 1930's.....

Paramount is constantly looking for choice and desirable collections - either for outright purchase or for sale in one of our outstanding auctions. When YOU think of selling, think first of Paramount.....The 1909/8 double eagle is the only 20th century American gold coin overdate.....For some unexplained reason 1864-L cents appear in England with some frequency.....The collecting of coins by types, made popular with the introduction of appropriate coin albums in recent years, has completely changed the structure of coin prices.... ..Numismatists the world over have found Paramount to be the ideal source for their every numismatic requirement. Join them - and become an active Paramount customer. Collecting is a pleasure when you do business with Paramount.

Concerning Altered Dates, Fabrications, Etc.

During the past few years there has been a flood of spurious "key date" coins appear on the market. The situation has become so bad that during a convention last year we observed that over half of the 1916-D dimes offered to us were fakes. A similar illustration is afforded by the comments in the Redman Coins advertisement which appeared on page 23 of the August 10, 1966 issue of Coin World. Mr. Redman deplores the situation of alterations and notes that six out of seven 1893-S dollars examined were spurious.

At Paramount we are unequivocally 100% against fakes and alterations. Any that come our way via the purchase of collections are immediately destroyed or turned over to the Secret Service. We will continue to make our research facilities available to organizations, agencies and publications seeking to combat this problem.

But...the ultimate solution lies with you, the collector. Only by refusing to buy "questionable" pieces, even at ridiculously low prices, can the distribution of fakes be stopped. The knowledge of coin values is so widespread today that the chances of buying a genuine "key date" at half price are negligible. In numismatics, as in other fields, you get what you pay for.

As members of the International Association of Professional Numismatists and the Professional Numismatists Guild we support these groups in their vigil against fakes in our hobby. Should you be offered false pieces we strongly urge that you contact the Secret Service or one of the above numismatic organizations immediately. Many perpetrators' activities have been stopped this way...but, regrettably, there are still more to go.

Further, you receive this extraordinary guarantee: If, for any reason whatsoever, you are not 100% pleased with any item received from us (even if you change your mind and decide not to collect a particular coin or set!) you may return it within three days of receipt for a full and immediate cash refund.

*Most important of all...You'll enjoy your transactions with Paramount. You'll like the Paramount way of doing business.

A bit of numismatic history...

Prior to the 1953-1955 era Barber dimes, quarters and half dollars were selling for fractions of their present prices. About ten years ago the numismatic world suddenly "discovered" that certain Barber coins, particularly the branch mint issues were legitimately scarce in mint condition. Virtually overnight prices soared. Coins which formerly brought $50 now brought $150, $100 coins jumped to $200 and $300.

In the intervening years nothing much has happened to the prices of these same branch mint coins ...prices have edged up slowly, but by and large the surge of coin prices upward has passed these issues by. The result is that can buy Barber coins today for little more than they would have cost two or three years ago...and, in some instances, for not much more than they would have cost in the late 1950's or early 1960's.

We are not implying that Barber coins are headed for a sudden overdue price rise - because Uncirculated mintmark issues are too scarce to build much market activity. We do note however, that from a collecting standpoint here are coins you can buy today at "old time prices." As such, they merit more than just passing attention.

A Voice in the Wilderness

In their day (issued c. 1892-1954) commemorative half dollars were of tremendous benefit to the coin hobby. They provided not only interesting coins to collect but served as a means of introducing the public to coins also...much as the stamp hobby today is benefited by the multitudinous commemorative stamp issues.

No commemoratives have been issued since 1954. The main argument against commemoratives seems to be that certain issues were inequitably distributed in the past. Is this to say that the U.S. government cannot properly cope with the distribution of a new issue? We doubt it. When you consider it, you will realize that the U.S. government is very much in the coin business today. It issues an extensive list of new and restruck medals for sale, makes a hefty profit on the 91¢ face value worth of coins it sells in the $4 mint set, etc. ...So why not an issue of commemoratives? We are sure that most collectors would not object to paying a premium for the pieces...and the government itself could be the distributor.

The benefits to the coin hobby would be substantial. Look at what the issuance (inadvertently) of small date cents did for the hobby in 1960. Tens of thousands of persons became coin collectors via the small date cent publicity. The same was true of the government silver dollar releases of the 1960-1961 years. The same would be true, we are sure, if the government would issue new commemorative half dollars.

Perhaps what is needed to turn this small voice in the wilderness into a full-fledged cry is support by the A.N.A. or the various numismatic publications. Here is a worthy cause that would be of value to everyone connected with numismatics!

UNITED STATES GOLD COINS

When you think of United States gold coins, think of Paramount... For some time now we have been major suppliers of scarce and rare gold coins to private numismatists, museums and dealers in all parts of the United States. Our full-time European buyer, Mr. Paul H. Wittlin, has recently sent us an outstanding shipment of new purchases. These coins, added to our inventory and to a choice collection recently acquired, make this selection especially interesting.

Whether you are collecting double eagles by date and mint, collecting a type set of U.S. coins or are an investor seeking wholesale lots we are sure that you will find many items to be of interest to you.

U.S. GOLD DOLLARS

1848-C Uncirculated (!). You can count on one hand the total number of all dates of Charlotte Mint quarter eagles that have appeared in Uncirculated grade on the market during the past year. An outstanding opportunity---------- 295.00

1854-D One of the very rarest quarter eagles; indeed, one of the very rarest American gold coins. The 1854-D has escaped the limelight...perhaps because it is "too rare" and has been lacking in most large collections (one cannot wax enthusiastic about a coin in an auction catalogue if the coin does not appear!). We offer a well-struck beautiful EF-AU coin that will grace the cabinet of the most fastidious numismatist---------- 1695.00
1882 Very Fine, loop removed from edge----- 65.00

1914-D Extremely Fine $29.50; AU---------- 35.00

UNITED STATES PATTERN COINS

Attributions are to "U.S. Patterns" by Dr. J. Hewitt Judd ("J" numbers) and to "U.S. Pattern, Trial and Experimental Pieces" by Adams and Woodin ("AW" numbers). We can supply a quality reprint of the 1913 Adams-Woodin work for $7.50 postpaid.

Pattern Half Cents

1856 half cent. J-177, AW-216. Struck in copper-nickel alloy. One of a series of patterns which paved the way for the introduction of the copper-nickel alloy for regular coinage (of the 1¢ denomination) the following year. Very Fine. Exceedingly rare---------- $250.00

Pattern Cents

1858 Indian cent. J-208; AW-264. Obverse and reverse identical to the regular issue 1859 Indian cent in all respects save the date. An important transitional issue...comparable in status to the 1856 flying eagle cent - although the recipient of much less publicity over the past years. Rare. Proof---------- 425.00

1858 Flying eagle cent. Obverse with large flying eagle of the adopted standard; small letters in legend. Reverse with laurel wreath as used in 1859. J-191. Proof. Very rare---------- 495.00

1858 Indian cent. J-212; AW-268. Obverse with Indian head; reverse with broad ornamented shield. Catalogues $450.00. Scarce. Special Price...Proof---------- 360.00

1858 Indian cent. J-213; AW-270. Reverse with the regular cereal wreath as used on 1858 flying eagle cents. Very scarce. This specimen in just Very Fine grade is unusual - most seen are Proofs.------ 145.00

1866 Indian cent. Struck in copper-nickel on a thick planchet - identical to the copper nickel standard of 1860-1864. J-456; AW-597. Dr. Judd estimates that fewer than 30 pieces are extant. Proof-- 395.00

1868 Cent. J-605; AW-698. Head of Liberty design similar to the contemporary nickel 3¢ piece. Interesting! Nickel metal. Proof---------- 79.00

1868 Cent. J-608; AW-700. A modification of the preceding design. Nickel. Proof----- 77.50

Pattern Two-Cent Pieces

1865 J-407; AW-522. The interesting and rare bi-metallic issue. Dr. Judd notes: "Regular dies on planchets formed of silver and copper previously compressed with rollers as to show silver on one side and copper on the other. Said to have been struck from native Michigan ore." Ideal item for a money museum or educational exhibit. Proof, with planchet roughness (as usual, due to laminating difficulties.)---------- 195.00

Pattern Nickel Three Cent Pieces

1868 Similar to J-619 and AW-693, but struck (using a collar) on a cent planchet - and is the diameter of a cent. Proof in copper (bronze)---------- 75.00

Pattern Nickel 5¢ Pieces

1867 Regular design shield nickel with rays. Copper. J-572; AW-632. Proof. Identical except for the metal to a Proof 1867 with rays nickel. Rare---------- 650.00

1872 Regular dies struck aluminum. J-1190; AW-1273. Extremely rare. Dr. Judd estimates a population of 4 to 12 pieces known. Beautiful Proof. The addition of a few off-metal trial pieces adds spice to any numismatic exhibit or collection ...and at a cost of less than you would pay for many 20th century U.S. coins of infinitely lesser interest---------- 175.00

1875 Regular dies struck in aluminum. J-1388; AW-1459. Of equal rarity and interest to the foregoing. A numismatic treasure. Perhaps it is because a collector must have more than a superficial interest and knowledge to collect them that patterns have been bypassed by the throngs of newcomers to coin collecting. In any event, it is now possible to buy great rarities in Proof condition in the pattern series for relatively modest sums. This J-1388 is a lovely Proof---------- 195.00

1882 Liberty nickel. Obverse and reverse similar but not identical to the regular issue of 1883. In aluminum. Proof. J-1689; AW-1674. Add interest to your collection by buying this 1882 Liberty nickel---------- 245.00

1896 Nickel. J-1772; AW-1736. Shield design. Struck in aluminum. Extremely rare. The last (latest-dated) collectible pattern in the 5¢ series. Extremely Fine-------- 98.00

Pattern Dimes

1868 With legend: EXCHANGED FOR US NOTES. Issued (or, rather, proposed) for the redemption of fractional currency notes then in circulation. Proof. Dr. Judd writes that only two or three specimens are known to exist! Literally, a "once in a lifetime" opportunity.---------- 370.00

Pattern Quarters

1874 With arrows at date. Impression of the regular coinage Proof dies in aluminum. Rare and interesting. Fewer than a dozen specimens extant---------- 275.00

1875 Regular dies in aluminum. J-1417; AW-1432. Proof, but slightly impaired by light "rain spots" or "freckles" in the upper left quadrant of the obverse. Fewer than a dozen known---------- 100.00

Pattern Half Dollars

1869 Standard Silver series. J-743; AW-732. Aluminum, plain edge. Proof---------- 95.00

1869 Standard Silver series. J-757; AW-740. Copper, plain edge. Proof---------- 75.00

Pattern Silver Dollars

1869 Regular 1869 Liberty seated dollar Proof impression in aluminum (then considered to be a rare metal and a possible substitute for silver). Fewer than a dozen specimens known. J-764; AW-727. Lovely Proof---------- 275.00

Pattern Trade Dollars

1873 J-1276; AW-1298. Silver, reeded edge. Proof. One of the extensive and illustrious series of Trade and Commercial dollars struck circa 1872-1873 during the reviewing of designs.---------- 495.00

Pattern Gold Coins

1869 Quarter eagle ($2.50). Impression of the regular Proof dies in copper. Fewer than a dozen specimens known. Proof----- 125.00

1869 Half eagle ($5.00). Impression of the regular Proof dies in aluminum. J-776; AW-714. Of equal rarity to the preceding 150.00

1872 Eagle ($10.00). J-1246; AW-1217. William Barber's beautiful design utilizing his beautiful Amazonian reverse - one of our favorite U.S. coin pattern designs. Copper. Attractive Proof---------- 245.00

1872 Eagle ($10.00). J-1248; AW-1214. Impression of the regular issue dies in copper. Exceedingly rare. Proof--------- 120.00

1875 Eagle ($10.00). J-1447; AW-1402. Impression of the regular dies in aluminum. In 1875 fewer than a dozen "Proof sets" were struck containing one each of all denominations 1¢ to $20 in aluminum. Like similar sets of other years, the 1875 aluminum sets have been largely scattered to the four winds...and only an occasional coin appears on the market today. (cf.,for instance, lot #1437 of the 1966 A.N.A. sale catalogue which offers an 1875 $3 in aluminum...A. Kosoff, cataloguer). This 1875 $10. is a lovely Proof---------- 495.00

Confederate States of America Bonds

We offer attractive prices on a group of Confederate States of America bonds recently purchased in England.

These bonds were apparently bought in 1861 by a wealthy Englishman and have remained in England since that time. Faith in the success of the Confederacy plus the attractive 8% interest rate made these bonds popular with Englishmen and other Europeans. The first issue of CSA bonds authorized by the Provisional Congress on Feb. 28, 1861 at the provisional capital of Montgomery, Alabama, was well secured and was, in fact, oversubscribed. The desirability of these bonds was such that they were selling at a premium in 1862!

Morale was high and the success of the early Confederate issues was not questioned. As the CSA lost ground its fortunes waned. Dozens of bond issues followed, each one weaker than the preceding.

We offer several different Confederate bonds for your selection. Each bond has many of the coupons intact and will grade Fine or better. An ideal gift...ideal for framing. A conversation piece for your home, office or den.

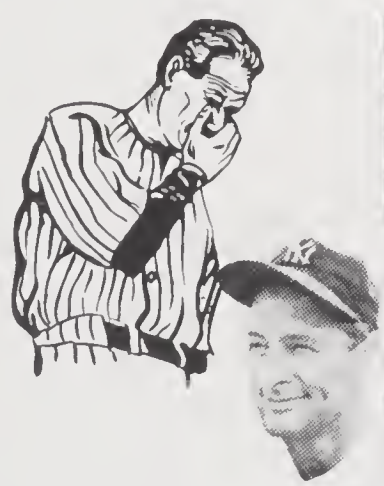
The Sultan of Swat majestically looked toward the distant outfield and then appeared to point with his outreached arm. The fans were stunned as they watched the ball sail to the exact spot where the Babe had so dramatically pointed just moments before. Babe Ruth and the "Called Shot" in the 1932 World Series has become a sports legend.



The date 1939. The place Yankee Stadium. No one was ashamed of the tears that were very much in evidence as baseball presented Lou Gehrig with "His Day." The "Pride of the Yankees" had won the hearts of all baseball fans with his accomplishments on the field. Now stricken with a fatal disease, Lou Gehrig once again proved his right to be among the immortals by humbly responding, "This is the greatest day of my life."

Babe Ruth — "THE CALLED SHOT"

TOOTS SHOR has been called America's No. 1 sports fan. If he's not, he'll do until the Real No. 1 stands up. His world famous New York restaurant has been a crossroads of the sports world for three decades. In that time there has not been even one great figure in athletics who did not drop by to sit, and sometimes sip with Shor. Sports people, in the management side as well as the physically active side come to Toots from all sections of the country with their problems. He has been consulted by everybody from Commissioner of Baseball to the assistant batboy of the New York Mets. His advice is free. It is earnest. And it is based on a truly profound knowledge of all games, and a good and solid understanding of human nature.

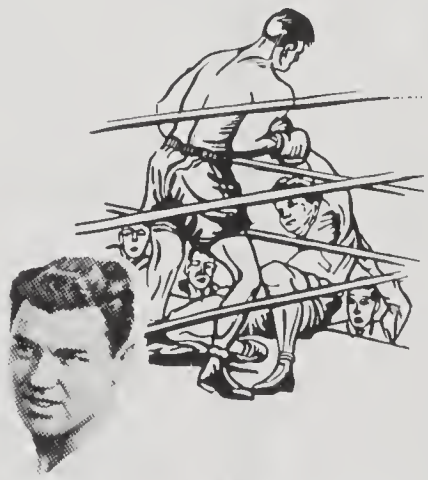
Shor fell in love with sports a long time ago. And vice versa.

BOB CONSIDINE is one of the top figures in contemporary journalism. His famous "On The Line" column appears regularly in the nation's top newspapers. As sports editor for the Washington Herald, his column "On The Line," then exclusively a sports column, attracted considerable nationwide attention and brought him to the New York Daily Mirror. Since then he has broadened his activities to include not only those of a sports writer, but also drama critic, columnist, editorial writer, and short story author. He is frequently called upon for work on movies where his unique talents and background are required—and also countless radio and television programs. He is also author of many popular best sellers which include "The Life Story of Babe Ruth."

SI BURICK, veteran Sports Editor of The Dayton Daily News, has earned nationwide distinction. Ten times his stories on varied topics have appeared in "Best Sports Stories," published by E. P. Dutton. For the last four years he has won the Ohio Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association award as Ohio's sportswriter of the year, a distinction conferred upon him by his fellow scribes. His book, "Alston and the Dodgers," in which he collaborated with Walter Alston, thirteen year manager of the Los Angeles Dodgers, will be published by Doubleday & Co., September 1966.

THE FINEST craftsmen in the medals field will produce the Cavalcade of Sports medals. The size of each medal will be 1½" in diameter (dollar size). The sculptured 3-dimensional high relief and antique finish captures the likeness of each subject with astounding quality. Words cannot describe the artistic beauty in this medallic series.

EACH ISSUE will be struck in .999+ pure silver. There will be no copies struck in bronze or other non-precious metals. The issue will be strictly limited to one for each membership in good standing. No other pieces will be struck and the dies will be destroyed. Members will receive a certified statement as to the quantity struck and to the fact that the dies have been destroyed.



The knockdowns were frequent in that famous first round between Jack Dempsey and Luis Firpo in 1923. The crowd was in a frenzy. All of a sudden, Dempsey was knocked completely out of the ring. As the sportswriters helped push Dempsey back into the ring, Firpo stood waiting for the kill.

The date 1936. The place Berlin, Germany. Jesse Owens had just accomplished the feat of winning four gold medals in the Olympics. Adolph Hitler, who had already embarked on his "Grand Plan," was stunned. The entire world was captivated by these super-human feats. The memory of Jesse Owens carrying the symbolic torch at the closing curtain of the 1936 Olympics will never be forgotten.

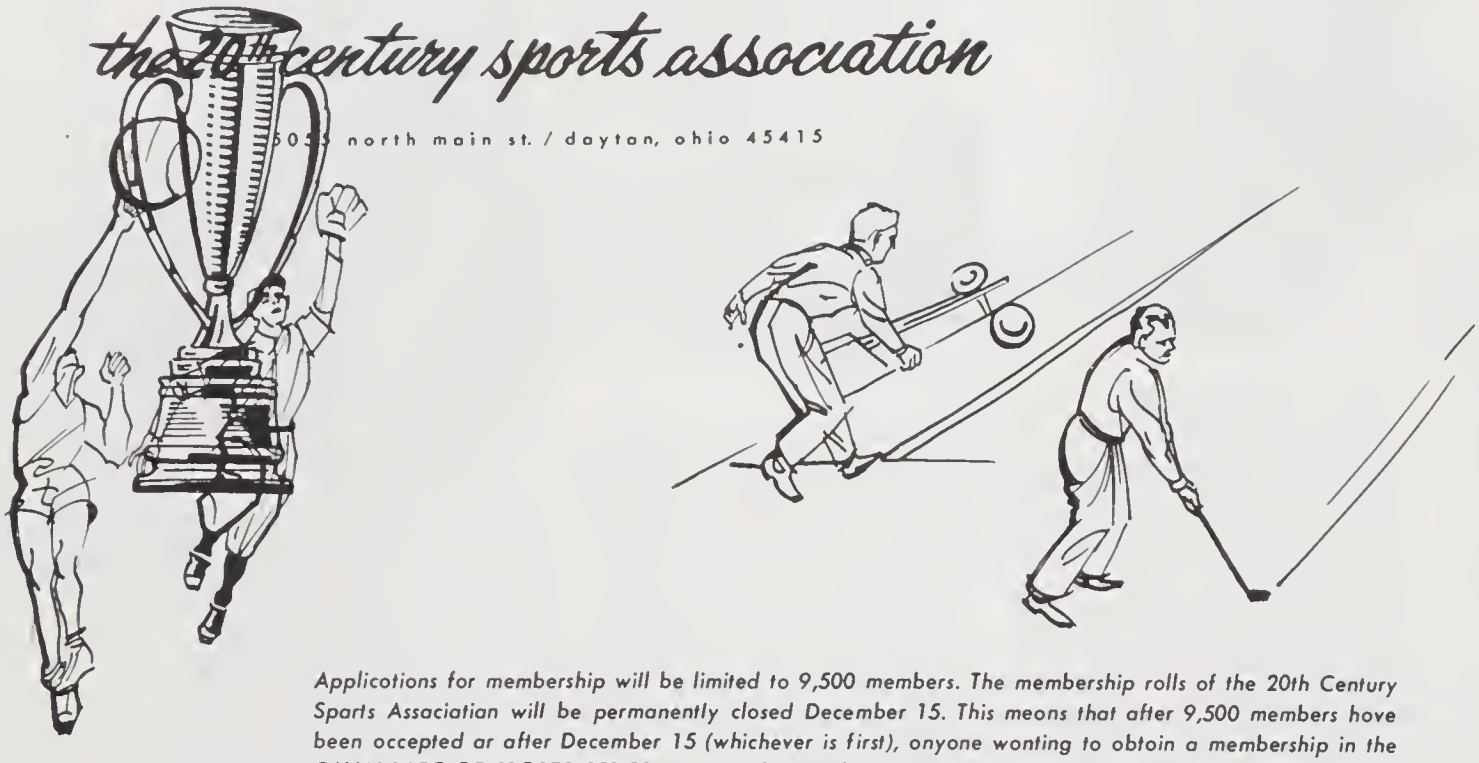
A WORD ABOUT OUR MEDALS . . .

Sculptors have used the medium of medals as an expression of art for many centuries. There are many medals which are among the classics in numismatics. The sculptured high relief featured in the CAVALCADE OF SPORTS SERIES offers the artistic freedom needed to capture the astounding likeness of the featured personalities and events. We firmly believe the owners of this series of medals will participate in a collection destined unequalled recognition. . . . Now and in years to come.



Applications for membership will be limited to 9,500 members. The membership rolls of the 20th Century Sports Association will be permanently closed December 15. This means that after 9,500 members have been accepted or after December 15 (whichever is first), anyone wanting to obtain a membership in the CAVALCADE OF SPORTS SERIES must purchase it from one of the charter members at a premium. The Cavalcade of Sports Medals issue price of $7.50 each is a numismatic breakthrough. Never before have large (dollar size) sculptured 3-dimensional, high relief .999+ pure silver medals been offered anywhere near this price. Charter members are receiving the direct benefits of the substantial savings created in this unique program by the elimination of dealer discounts, inventories, and a need for continued advertising expenditures. Charter members will enjoy one of the greatest values ever offered in the Numismatics.

QUESTIONS FROM READERS

QUESTION: How can I be sure that my name stays on the Paramount mailing list? I enjoy receiving these Special Price Lists.

ANSWER: These Special Price Lists, auction catalogues and other Paramount publications go FREE of charge to active clients. As it costs us a minimum of several dollars per year to have your name on our list you must order at least $15 per year worth of numismatic books, medals, coins or other items to remain in our active file. The only alternative to this policy would be to charge an annual fee of $5 or so (as many firms do) and send publications to anyone paying the subscription fee.

QUESTION: Why do prices vary so much on Brilliant Uncirculated cents, particularly large cents? For instance, I have seen large cents of the 1850's advertised in BU grade from about $35 to close to $100.

ANSWER: The term "Brilliant Uncirculated" means different things to different people. In our opinion a Brilliant Uncirculated U.S. large cent would be one possessing full original mint lustre and brilliance and without even the slightest evidence of wear. We will pay full 1967 Guide Book price for any U.S. large cent in Brilliant Uncirculated grade by our standard of definition.

Unfortunately our grading opinion is not shared by many newcomers to the business. More often than not (and this is indeed unfortunate) a coin advertised as "Brilliant Uncirculated" is nothing but an EF or AU which has been "dipped," or, worse, subjected to treatment with acid and then recolored amateurishly.

Most old timers in the trade will describe such cleaned coins for what they are. The only really safe way is to "know your dealer." One man's bargain priced "BU" coin at $35 may be worse than anothers seemingly high-priced EF at the same figure. For additional comments concerning pricing and values see our "Price vs. Value" comments elsewhere in this issue.

QUESTION: How can I tell an 1883/2 overdate shield nickel from an ordinary recut 1883?

ANSWER: The real 1883/2 should show the "2" sharply and unequivocally under the 3 in the date. See page 93 of A Guide Book of U.S. Coins for an illustration (furnished, incidentally, to Whitman Publishing Co. by our Research Department) of this overdate.

Several years ago - before the 1883/2 was illustrated most so-called "1883/2" nickels offered were merely recut dates. Now that knowledge of the variety is widespread this misattribution has decreased sharply.

Due to the hardness of the nickel alloy dies for the shield nickel wore rapidly - necessitating frequent recutting to strengthen various features. For this reason perfect shield nickels (without recutting, die cracks, etc.) of the early years of the series are rarer than imperfect ones!

Some of the more interesting shield nickel recuttings are the 1866 over 1866 with the two dates horizontally misaligned - so that the date reads 18666...and the 1867 large date over small date variety.

* * * * * *

QUESTION: I note that the 1967 Guide Book lists an 1829/7 half dollar...and deletes the 1829/1. Is this a new listing for the same coin?

ANSWER: Yes. Ken Bressett of the Whitman staff informs us that the so-called 1829/1 is in reality over a 7. This determination was made with the discovery of a specimen from an early state of the dies which showed the various features of the "7" clearly. ...So, reclassify the 1829/1 in your collection as an 1829/7.

* * * * * *

QUESTION: Elsewhere you once noted that the 1796 "LIKERTY" half dime is not an error at all. What is the explanation?

ANSWER: We refer you to an article Walter H. Breen wrote for Empire Topics in 1958. Mr. Breen noted: "Incidentally, the so-called LIKERTY half dime of 1796 is simply the comparatively easily obtainable Valentine #1, with dies somewhat worn so that the B weakens and later appears open at top and bottom. It is, needless to say, not a mint error."

The "LIKERTY" half dime is one of the interesting occurrences in which an imperfect coin is worth more than a perfect one. Other examples are the 1922 "plain" cent which is a poorly struck 1922-D ...and, in the British series, the 1888 and 1889 double florins with the "inverted 1" in VICTORIA (simply the result of an imperfect I punch with one serif broken) and the "mdccclxxri" florin in which the "r" is merely an imperfect "x".

PRICE vs. VALUE

Down the street from our office is a highly successful pizza parlor. The pizza served there is delicious. We imagine that this pizza parlor and others of the same nationwide chain are successful because they deliver tasty pizzas at reasonable prices.

Posted inside of our favorite pizza parlor is a sign which reads: We have no quarrel with those who sell for less - they know what their product is worth.

The above was brought to mind by a recent incident in our own business. We advertised a particular Morgan silver dollar for about $20 in brilliant Uncirculated condition. Shortly after the ad appeared we received a telephone call from a customer who said, "I notice that --- is offering the same coin for $16.00. Can you match his price?"

"We're sorry, but we can't match his price on this particular item. Why don't you order from ---?," was our reply.

"I did order from him, but his coin was quite nicked and scuffed and I had to return it," our customer answered.

Incidents such as the above are all-too-familiar these days.

In numismatics, like in other walks of life, you get what you pay for. In the July, 1966 issue of The Numismatist editor Glenn Smedley observed:

> "Many a man who wouldn't think of gambling with dice, cards or at the race track will not hesitate to order "rare" coins at bargain prices from an advertiser about whom he knows nothing whatsoever!"

At Paramount we don't claim to be the cheapest in the business. What we do claim, however, is more important to YOU in our opinion. When you order from Paramount you receive coins of GUARANTEED AUTHENTICITY...a most important factor in today's market. You get coins ACCURATELY GRADED by conservative standards...coins that are GUARANTEED TO PLEASE.

You get an excellent VALUE for your money when you order from Paramount. Perhaps this point is best illustrated by observing that most of our business is REPEAT business...from discriminating numismatists and museums which have ordered from us time and time again - and have found complete satisfaction each time.

RARE COINS AS A HEDGE AGAINST INFLATION

The coin collector has an advantage over many other hobbyists - he can literally have his cake and eat it too! Numismatics is an enjoyable hobby repaying the collector with many hours of pleasure. Unlike many other hobbies, coins have historically been a superb investment. Rare indeed is the numismatist who cannot realize a handsome profit when he sells his collection.

A vivid illustration of this last point is provided by the true statement that with every "old-time" (held for ten years or more) collection we have purchased...without exception...the owner has received much more than he has paid. In every instance the gains have outpaced the gains of the U.S. economy as a whole.

Sure,you can point to examples of certain coins which have decreased in value...but you can point just as easily (if not far more easily) to stocks, bonds, parcels of real estate, paintings, etc. which have dropped in price.

However, the inescapable fact remains that you could have made a tremendous profit by just selecting miscellaneous coins at random from the Guide Book of U.S. coins ten years ago and selling them today. If you want proof of this just take a 1956 Guide Book, close your eyes and pick out a few dozen random coins...and compare their values with those of today. If you had selected world coins your gains would have even been greater.

People have lost money in coins also. But - and this is most important - probably 99% of those who have lost or who have fared indifferently were those who entered numismatics blindly buying on "hot tips" from unexperienced or non-professional sellers with bad advice. The coin market is not the stock market. It is virtually impossible to make an overnight profit. Coins do not increase in value on a day-to-day basis. Rather, the gain is long term and takes place over a period of years...comparable to investment in selected real estate. Long term coin investment has the added advantage of being taxable at low capital gains rates.

What is the outlook for coin investment? This question is asked of every dealer. In our opinion the outlook is good. All factors seem to point in the direction of an increase in price. Consider the various elements: The American economy is growing. People have more spare time for hobbies (including coin collecting). Wages are rising. People have more extra money to spend on hobbies and other non-essential needs. The trend is toward urban living with millions of U.S. citizens living in apartments. Coins require little space and are ideally suited for the city dweller.

What is the best way to invest in coins? Here, again, is a question with many different answers. We believe that the best way to invest is to begin a collection. Become a knowledgeable buyer by reading about coins as much as possible. Subscribe to the various publications. Buy from a number of different dealers to familiarize yourself with various standards of grading and values. In this way you will get the greatest value for each dollar you spend. By collecting and investing at the same time you take maximum benefit of what the wonderful world of numismatics has to offer.

We believe that the best years in numismatics lie ahead. Now, in 1966, you are at the beginning. Take advantage of what our hobby has to offer!

C O I N S O F E N G L A N D

Since the early 1960's we have been a major supplier of scarce and rare English coins. During the past few years many of the finest collections sold in England have come our way. The Hammond Collection of English coppers, the Heeley Collection of copper and silver coins, the "Britannia" collection (one of England's finest cabinets) replete with many unlisted Proofs and other gems, the Stratford Collection virtually complete in mint-condition issues of Queen Victoria, selected rarities from the cabinet of C. Wilson Peck, Esq....these are just a few of the many fine collections and coins we have offered our clients.

In England the rare coin market is presently one of growth. One has but to read the prices realized at the London salerooms of Glendining & Co., Sotheby's, Christie's and others to note that prices are inexorably climbing upward.

Numismatics was not a widespread popular pastime in England until 1960. Prior to that time coin collecting was the specialty of a few thousand dedicated numismatists. More often than not, interest centered on the classical issues of Greece and Rome or perhaps on the earlier issues of Britain. The collecting of farthings, halfpennies, pennies, etc. by dates and mints (the "American way" of collecting) was done by few.

In 1960 the British government demonetized the farthing and called in all the pieces from circulation. The many newspaper notices on the subject whetted the public's appetite for these interesting little coins - and people began to save them. Many began assembling date sets of farthings. This marked the beginning of a widespread popular interest in coins and a sharp growth in coin collecting.

In the years since 1960 coin collecting has become very popular in England. Last year saw the first public coin convention in that country. The past two years have seen a number of coin accessories - holders, folders, etc. - introduced, not to mention the start of the popular Coins and Medals magazine.

We believe that the English market affords remarkable opportunities at this time...and even compare it to the American market twenty or thirty years ago (when 1793 cents aplenty were available, 1877 Proof Indian cents fetched all of $10 to $25 or so, etc.). Today one can assemble a specialized or type collection of English coins at modest cost. It takes a wealthy man to assemble a strictly Uncirculated and Proof type set of United States coins of the past two centuries. Not so with an English type set at the present time. Beautiful Uncirculated and Proof pieces can be purchased for nominal sums.

We believe that today is an excellent time to begin a collection of English coins. Our stock, while hardly complete, is one of the finest and most extensive in existence today. We recommend the selections listed on the following pages for your consideration.

1673 With legend reading "CAROLUS A CAROLO" (correct spelling). Fair $3.00; Very Fine---------- 25.00

1673 With erroneous "CAROLUS A CAROLA" legend. Good $15.00; Very Good---------- 25.00

Note: Spelling errors such as the above occur with some frequency among farthings and halfpennies of the 17th and 18th centuries. Some authorities have theorized that less care was taken with the low-value copper pieces than with the silver and gold denominations.

1674 Fine $20.00; Very Fine---------- 27.00

1675 VF $25.00; Glossy AU...uncommon condition for one of these early pieces!--- 45.00

Farthings of Queen Anne

1714 Lovely red and brown Uncirculated. Virtually unobtainable in this grade. Magnificent and priceless! ---------- 140.00

Note: The farthings of Queen Anne have had an almost legendary place in British history...like the 1913 Liberty nickel in our own country. Rumors to the effect that but one, two or three Queen Anne farthings are known have appeared frequently in the popular press...usually accompanied by valuations of thousands of pounds sterling. The fact is that the farthings of Queen Anne are indeed rare... but the number known is more on the order of two to three hundred specimens.

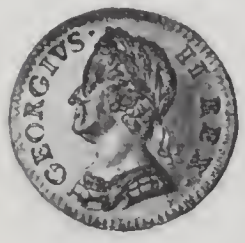
1746 Red and brown Uncirculated. Very rare in this grade---------- 42.00
1749 Extremely Fine---------- 14.00
Note: The desirability of English coins to the American collector is further enhanced by the fact that the early issues were legal tender in the Colonies (nearly all deeds, bills of sale, etc. before 1800 in America were reckoned in pounds, shillings and pence)...and that English coins were the backbone of trade and commerce.
1750 Extremely Fine---------- 17.00



1754 VG $3.00; Brilliant Uncirculated (where could you locate another in this grade for any price?) Needless to say, rare--- 55.00

Farthings of George III

1773 Red and brown Uncirculated. Decidedly uncommon in this state of preservation-- 37.50

1837 Very Fine---------- 4.00

Farthings of Queen Victoria
Young Head Copper Type Issued 1838-1860

1839 Very Fine $4.00; Proof, from the specimen set of this year---------- 85.00
General information concerning the availability of Proof English copper and bronze coins of the 19th and 20th centuries: Specimen Proof Sets containing the farthing, halfpenny and penny denominations were issued in 1826, 1831, 1839, 1853 (ex.rare), 1937, 1950, 1951 and 1953. Also - a few 1868 Specimen Proof Sets containing bronze coins only were issued. Hence, Proof specimens of the above dates may be regarded as "collectible," although some patience may be required. Proofs of other dates were struck in exceedingly small quantities - and the acquisition of them is a matter of fortuitous chance.
1841 Brilliant Uncirculated---------- 19.00
1849 Extremely Fine---------- 7.00
1854 VF $3.00; Red and brown Uncirculated-- 12.00

Victorian Farthings - Bronze Type of 1860-1895
"Young Head" style

1860 Beaded border. Scarce. Good $3.00; AU $19.00; Red and brown Uncirculated $30.00; Brilliant Uncirculated---------- 39.00
Note: The first bronze coins (of all three denominations - farthings, halfpennies and pennies) of 1860 were struck from dies with beaded borders. The rims of these dies kept spalling and cracking, causing the abandonment of this style for the customary toothed border.
1860 Toothed border. Brown Uncirculated---- 8.00
1862 Extremely Fine---------- 3.00

1863 Rare...traditionally considered to be the key date of the Victorian farthings. Specimens are elusive in all grades. We offer a selection to satisfy any numismatic appetite: Good $25.00; VG $35.00; Fine $55.00; VF $65.00; EF $75.00; AU--- 125.00

1939 Farthings...A Special Offer!

Last year we obtained a remarkable group of 1939 Brilliant Uncirculated farthings...9600 pieces in all...from a gentleman in Australia. Prior to that time we had never had in stock more than a dozen or two of any pre-1940 farthing in Uncirculated grade.

We purchased the group for a reasonable figure - and are passing the savings on to you. In the intervening months we have sold most of our original group, with the result that only a few thousand still remain. We consider this to be one of the most unusual distributions we have ever made. We seriously doubt if we or any other rare coin dealer will ever handle a similar group again.

While our supply lasts we offer these pieces in quantity for 1/3 or less of the regular retail price! All orders will be filled on a first-come first-served basis.

1956 Farthings...

The 1956 farthing is one of the most popular 20th century English coins. The mintage of the 1956 farthing was less than two million pieces...making it the lowest mintage farthing since 1892!

For comparison purposes the 1956 farthing is rarer than the U.S 1950-D nickel!

The 1956 is the key date of the later farthings and is the last year of that denomination. 1956 farthings are even scarcer than the low mintage would indicate, so it is presumed that many pieces were melted upon demonetization of the farthing in 1960.

We offer choice selected BU 1956 farthings as per the following prices... As of this writing we have about 1000 pieces in stock.

Note: On recent trips to England we have noticed an increasing scarcity of Uncirculated material. In many instances dealers' stocks will be limited to Good to EF material, without any Uncirculated or Proof Victorian pieces (copper and silver) in evidence.

There's no time like the present to begin your collection of English coins. Our stock is choice at the present time - but this is a decreasing situation. We simply cannot replace many of the better pieces once they are sold. The ones we have on hand were acquired years ago. The marketplace does not afford us similar buying opportunities today.

1808 Unique - the only known specimen of this date. This beautiful coin traces its pedigree to the estate of Matthew Boulton, Esq., proprietor of the famous Soho Mint. What better statement is there to make than the following? No museum or private collection of English coins can be complete without this coin. There are three major rarities in the field of English pennies 1797 to date: the unique 1808, the 1933 of which six specimens are known and the unique 1954.

At the present time we are fortunate to be able to offer the unique 1954 also (see our description later in this catalogue).

Any collection acquiring one of these pieces, either the 1808 or 1954, will have a priceless treasure. Any collection acquiring both will have the knowledge that no one else, regardless of ambition or budget, can ever have a complete collection without these pieces.

If "once in a lifetime opportunity" is an expression appropriate in numismatics, then this is certainly the place to use it.

1954 The famous and unique 1954 English penny...one of the most famous coins the world has ever known. This unique specimen from the incomparable collection of Mr. C.W. Peck has been the subject of many magazine and newspaper articles... and even a Parliamentary debate!

See our comments under the 1808 penny earlier in this catalogue.

The 1954 English penny is one of the world's foremost numismatic treasures. What is its value? Coins of which over a dozen are known (the 1804 U.S. silver dollar) have fetched $35,000.00 and more. One coin of which three specimens are known reportedly sold for over $75,000.00. The 1954 English penny is literally priceless. Once it is sold an offer of $100,000.00 or any sum will not secure one for your collection if the new owner does not wish to sell.

Considering the importance of this piece (it is the rarest 20th century English coin; the rarest coin of Queen Elizabeth, etc.) we feel that $50,000.00 would not be unreasonable for this piece.

However, for the present, we offer it at the valuation set several years ago:30,000.00

1961 Scarce for a modern issue. Each: .75; ten for $6.00; 100 for $40.00; 1000 for- 389.00

ENGLISH TWOPENCE

1797 The only copper twopence ever issued for circulation. Familiarly known as a "cartwheel" the 1797 twopence weighed two ounces at the time of striking. For many years afterward the 1797 twopence pieces and the one penny pieces of the same year (which weighed 1 oz.) were used as measuring weights by shopkeepers. We offer a selection of grades: Good $8.00; VG $10.00; VF $19.00 (three for $51.00); EF ---------- 25.00

1884 Unc.,rubbing $11.00; Uncirculated----- 24.00

Note: The term "Uncirculated" as used in our listing of English silver coins applies to coins strictly in mint condition...ranging from attractively toned pieces to fully brilliant specimens. Some of the lilac and golden iridescent hues on these pieces are indescribably beautiful. These pieces could always be "dipped" to make them brilliant, but it would be a shame, to our way of thinking, to destroy in a second the beautiful toning it took years to produce.

As a further comment on the subject of cleaning, it is interesting to note that the "everything must be brilliant" syndrome is largely a product of recent years. Most old-time cabinets contain attractively toned pieces, as do museums. In the United States "clean it to death" has been the motto of many. Cleaning can and does improve certain coins such as those with unsightly stains or spots...but only when the cleaning is performed by an expert. Inept cleaning causes hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of damage, if not millions, yearly.

Sixpence of George VI - 2nd Type 1947-1948

1947 and 1948 marked the introduction of the new copper-nickel alloy. The English banks were instructed to place the new coins in circulation as soon as possible. Few mint specimens were saved of the new coinage...with the result that Uncirculated 1947 and 1948 sixpence, shillings, florins and halfcrowns are all fairly scarce today.

ENGLISH PROOF SETS

During the past half century England has issued Proof sets on five occasions: (1) 1927 - to illustrate the new coinage designs of the denominations from threepence to crown; (2) 1937 - to illustrate the new coinage of King George VI; (3) 1950 - to provide a specimen set to fill the demands of numismatists; (4) 1951 - to commemorate the Festival of Britain; (5) 1953 - to commemorate the coronation of Queen Elizabeth II.

At the present time we can supply three of these five sets as follows:

1927 Specimen Proof set in original red box of issue. Complete as issued: threepence, sixpence, shilling, florin, halfcrown and crown. A very desirable set, in our opinion, as five of the six coins in the set are "Proof only" issues - none of their date and design were struck for circulation...making them important "key" dates in their respective series. Choice quality $345.00; three for ---------- $995.00

1937 Specimen Proof set in the original maroon leatherette case of issue. Contains the farthing, halfpenny, penny, silver threepence, brass threepence, sixpence, English and Scottish shillings, florin, halfcrown, crown and Maundy set - a virtual exhibit in itself! Choice----- 175.00

Note: When you buy from Paramount you buy choice quality. We offer only choice sets that were personally selected by our representatives in England. In the course of buying, many substandard sets were rejected. You get HIGH QUALITY when you buy from Paramount.

A new series of medals . . .

No single medal can justly commemorate the gallantry of thousands of men and women who gave their lives in the defense of this nation during World War II, therefore important events and personalities of World War II are depicted in a series of thirty medals.

Years of research and study preceded this program. Historians and military experts were consulted during its development. Sculptor Edward R. Grove personally revisited many of the battle scenes in order to create a proper feeling of the event.

Near the 25th anniversary of each event, a World War II medal will be released. Two events prior to United States entry into World War II introduce the series, the "Battle of Dunkirk" and the "Air Battle of Britain."

WORLD WAR II medals are issued as follows:
2500 pieces limited issue serially numbered Silver (.999+ pure) 1¾" diameter presented in a plush velvet lined presentation case
$20.00 each

Unnumbered pieces Antique Bronze 1¾" diameter offered in an appropriate gift box
$4.00 each

Each medal accompanied by a descriptive pamphlet.

Ohio residents must add 3% sales tax with order.

Reservations are available to those who wish to subscribe to the entire program. Limited issue serially numbered pieces offered only, subject to prior sale. Each medal will be issued near the 25th anniversary of the event.

The sculptor of World War II medals

EDWARD R. GROVE of Drexel Hill, Pennsylvania has been commissioned to create and design the models for the World War II medal series.

Mr. Grove is well known for his artistic works in sculpturing and illustration. He has engraved portraits of vignettes for nine U. S. postage stamps including the 1954 air mail stamp, later reissued as the 5¢ stamp in addition to engraving portraits of vignettes on more than 200 of the stamps of Cuba, Haiti, Paraguay, Philippines, Bolivia, Panama and the currency of Indonesia, Laos, Sudan and Viet-Nam.

In 1962, he was appointed as sculptor-engraver at the U.S. Mint in Philadelphia. Here, his work included the Gold Congressional medal, presented to Bob Hope by the Late President Kennedy. He also created the obverse of the West Virginia Centennial Medallion and the reverse of the 1964 annual Assay Commission medal.

Presently, he is devoting his full efforts to free lance commissions such as the WORLD WAR II medal series by Presidential Art Medals, Inc.

(copy of a letter sent to Coin World):

"...I had occasion to answer an ad which appeared in Coin World from the Paramount International Coin Corporation...

Within a surprisingly short time a registered Air Mail parcel came from Paramount. This contained the two coins requested---

Extremely Fine piece in such good condition that at first glance it appeared to be Uncirculated, but was an excellent and strong EF-AU. The AU coin was so nearly Uncirculated as to require close examination to distinguish. Practically full mint lustre appeared on both.

This treatment made me a mighty happy customer, and I thought you might wish to know my compliments on an excellent firm and Coin World advertiser..."

It is a pleasure doing business with you."

TWO different INTERESTING high-fidelity recordings of coin-operated

NICKELODEONS

We offer two different and interesting 33rpm long-playing high fidelity records, "NICKELODEONS" and "ORCHESTRIONS."

Each record features popular tunes from the "Roaring Twenties" as played on coin-operated nickelodeons and orchestrions (automatic orchestras) of that period.

Ray Merena and Nikki Stein listen to this Cremona orchestrion play a tune from the "good old days." Only about a dozen examples of this Cremona orchestrion style still are in existence today. Containing a piano, mandolin effect, violin pipes, flute pipes, bass drum, snare drum, kettle drum, xylophone, cymbal and triangle this orchestrion once delighted patrons of a Massachusetts restaurant - years ago.

During the early part of the twentieth century no place of public entertainment in America was complete without a nickelodeon. These machines ranged from small coin-operated player pianos to large orchestrions which simulated the playing of an entire human orchestra. Each machine was operated from a specially programmed paper roll. Ranging in cost from a few hundred dollars to many thousands of dollars these machines often paid for themselves in a year or less by taking in nickels one-by-one!

Eventually most nickelodeons went the way of Model T Fords, silent movies, biplanes and other relics of this era ...they were junked to make way for progress. The only surviving nickelodeons today are those carefully preserved in collections across the land.

The two recordings we offer, "NICKELODEONS" and "ORCHESTRIONS!," each feature machines restored to their original condition. The music they play is original, too...the paper rolls are collectors' items saved from the Roaring Twenties.

Each record is $4.95 postpaid. Each record is compatible for use on either stereo or monaural equipment. For sheer nostalgia...or for a gift that is different and sure to please...it would be hard to beat these unusual and interesting records of musical Americana brought to life!

These records may be ordered directly from Paramount by mail by using the regular coin order blank supplied with this catalogue. Just specify "NICKELODEONS!" or "ORCHESTRIONS!" and enclose $4.95 for each record desired. Your complete satisfaction is guaranteed.

On these two pages we illustrate some of the different machines featured on these two records.

Wurlitzer PianOrchestra - This orchestrion is one of the largest surviving today in the United States. Its musical capabilities include a piano, mandolin effect, violin pipes, cymbal, triangle, bass drum, snare drum and glockenspiel (orchestra bells). Standing nearly ten feet tall and surmounted by a peacock with a revolving tail made of sparkling jeweled lights the PianOrchestra is a treat to the eye as well as the ear!

One interesting feature of the PianOrchestra is the automatic roll changer...an intricate mechanical device which permits thirty different tunes to be played without repetition.

Like other machines of its day, the huge PianOrchestra is equipped with a nickel slot.

"Coin collectors" of their day, these coin-operated nickelodeons took in thousands of nickels - one-by-one.

Of the tens of thousands that once graced the American scene only a few hundred still survive today.

The two records we present, "NICKELODEONS!" and "ORCHESTRIONS!," feature outstanding nickelodeons restored to perfect condition.

So amazing was the Violano-Virtuoso automatic violin-playing machine that the United States government selected it as "One of the Eight Greatest Inventions of the Decade" when it was exhibited at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition in 1909.

King Edward VII, upon hearing of the marvelous Violano-Virtuoso, commanded that one be obtained and played in his presence!

About 4,000 Violano-Virtuosos were made by the Mills Novelty Company of Chicago from about 1909 to 1929. Depending upon the model they sold for about $2000.00 to $3500.00 each. Our record "NICKELODEONS!" features a single-violin model. Our recording "ORCHESTRIONS!" features a double-violin model with attached orchestra cabinet.

STYLE "G" — Art Style Orchestrion
Piano, two sets of wood pipes (violin and flute), mandolin attachment, bass drum snare drum, tympani, cymbal and triangle

Seeburg Orchestrion - This style "G" Seeburg orchestrion includes a piano, mandolin effect, violin pipes, flute pipes, triangle, cymbal, kettle drum, bass drum and snare drum.

These expensive machines found their best uses in ballrooms, speakeasies, fraternal lodges and other places where they were used in place of a live orchestra.

NICKELODEONS!

Features the following instruments: Wurlitzer PianOrchestra; Seeburg Style G orchestrion; Mills Violano-Virtuoso with one violin; Pianolin (an early arcade-type 44-note coin piano) and a Seeburg coin piano with mandolin attachment.

Featured on the record "NICKELODEONS!" are eighteen alltime favorite tunes including:

---Old Black Joe.
---Wedding Bells are Breaking Up That Old Gang of Mine.
---Dance of the Blue Danube.

Upon the rejection of the rights for coinage from America, the 1791 Liverpool Halfpenny obverse of the 1791 Small Eagle Cent was muled with a reverse of a Liverpool halfpenny token of Thomas Clarke, and passed as a tradesman's token. This muling was probably made for the purposes of producing a die variety to satisfy collectors.

The Roman Head variety of 1792 was another early pattern (judging from the reverse eagle) that met with little favor as it portrayed Washington in a manner unbecoming a democratic president. Very few of these specimens are known. Practically all have proof-like surfaces.

RHODE ISLAND

The origin, engraver, and circumstances under which this coin was struck remains for the most part, a mystery. It is supposed that this coin, probably a medal, is of Dutch origin, but the spelling and design indicate an English or Anglo-American origin. The two different dates offer the best of speculation. One side, presumably the obverse, commemorates the retreat of the Americans from Rhode Island on the night of August 30, 1778, and may have been intended to ridicule the Continental troops, yet, the inability of the British to hold the fruits of their victory is equally satirized by the other side, the reverse. Here is shown the fleet sailing away from Narragansett Bay, and their troops evacuating Rhode Island on October of 1779 under orders from the British Ministry. The same word "Vlugtende" (fleeing) is applied under the Admiral's ship on one of the varieties.

The legends support this theory completely. The obverse reads "The fleeing Americans of Rhode Island, August 1778", and the reverse reads, "Admiral Howe's flagship fleeing 1779."
